CURVED

Goods (Nice class & Statement)

(1) I have invented a new kind of cigarette rolling paper, which as a curved edge, and is therefore easy to roll. The problem with hand-rolling a cigarette, or using the simple one-cigarette machines that exist in the market, is that if you don't keep the top and bottom edges parallel, one corner gets out in front of the other, and the leading corner doesn't tuck. It goes up instead of down. Curved Papers is an elegant solution that eliminates the corners. They are the next generation solution, a step beyond cut corners, a traditional solution, which was a good idea. But Curved Papers are much better.
