

FORM 56

Notice to Creditors and Report to Official Receiver on Deemed Annulment of Consumer Proposal
(Subsection 66.31(3) of the Act)

(Title Form 1)

Take notice that:

1. _____, the consumer debtor, of the consumer proposal dated the _____ day of _____, is in default:

(Please check applicable box.)

- for an amount that is equal to or more than the amount of three payments (in the case when payments under the terms of the consumer proposal were to be made monthly or more frequently); or
- of a payment (in the case when payments under the terms of the consumer proposal were to be made less frequently than monthly).

(Give details of default on payment(s))

2. The _____ Court of _____ (province) in Bankruptcy, having made no order to the contrary and no amendment to the consumer proposal having previously been filed, the consumer proposal is deemed to have been annulled, by virtue of subsection 66.31(1) of the Act, on the _____ day of _____.

3. As a consequence of the deemed annulment of the consumer proposal:

- (a) the consumer debtor is not entitled to make another consumer proposal until all claims for which proofs of claim were filed are either paid in full or are extinguished by virtue of subsection 178(2) of the Act; and
- (b) the rights of the creditors of the consumer debtor are revived for the amount of their claims less any dividends received.

Dated at _____, this _____ day of _____.

Administrator of
