Obligations on Revival

A revived corporation is restored as if it had not been dissolved. As such, the public record will show the articles of the revived corporation exactly as they were at the time the corporation was dissolved. Changes made after dissolution will not be reflected.

If the corporation is revived, the following must be filed with Corporations Canada:

- any outstanding annual returns for the two most current years, including information on the individuals with significant control, starting with the 2024 Annual Return;
- any change in the registered office address;
- any change to director information;
- any amendments to the articles.

4 - Declaration
I hereby certify that the request for revival is intended for legal purposes, in good faith and in the interest of the applicant.
